December 1st, 1915

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt,

Oyster Bay.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

A few years ago we asked you to deliver a series of lectures in the University of Toronto and you were good enough to say that it was only unavoidable engagements that prevented you from coming. I understand now that there is a possibility of your coming to Toronto in December to address the Canadian Club. I hope that if you decide to come you will at the same time give an address to the students of the University. I can assure you that there would be a large gathering, and at this time we are throwing all our energies into stimulating men for this war. As the University closes for the year on the 17th of December, I hope that if you come it will be possible for you to make your arrangements with the Canadian Club at an earlier date than the 17th. Your outspoken sympathy with the Allies has aroused a very sympathetic note among our Canadian people.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
